

Arrangements complete in Davido hearing/7A

Twins lose to jays 7-3/1C

Decline in new housing/1D

MARKETPLACE Symbol of Progress
Microchip pioneer
Robert Noyce
started a revolution

VARIETY
Chinese Cooking
New tastes for a century old tradition

Printware News

WEDNESDAY/ June 6/1990

NEWSPAPER OF THE TWIN CITIES

35c

Soviets announce Europe arms cuts

But U.S. says proposal is unclear

Washington Post

Copenhagen, Denmark

Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze said Tuesday that his government will withdraw 1,500 nuclear warheads and other short-range nuclear weapons from central Europe this year, but U.S. officials cautioned that it was not clear whether he was counting weapons whose withdrawal Moscow had announced earlier.

launchers, more than 250 atomic artillery units and 1,500 nuclear warheads from the central European theater. He said the move was intended to help get negotiations started with the United States on reducing short-range nuclear weapons.

"These are new figures, and they seem to be quite impressive figures," Shevardnadze said last night after a two-hour meeting with Secretary of State James Baker. But he de-

28 firms facing possible suits on pollution

State records indicate that 28 companies have repeatedly violated their permits to discharge pollutants into state waters. The national Sierra Club and the Twin Cities-based Project Environment Foundation today will formally alert the companies, which include some of the state's largest, that they face lawsuits alleging that they have violated the federal Clean Water Act.

"These companies have to know that they are violating their permits because they are reporting the violations to the MCPA," said Alan Anderson, a Minneapolis attorney representing the environmental groups.

Monterey faces new suits on sex harassment Former Sterlich aide is named

By Margaret Paste
Staff Writer

Two women, including a former secretary of Gov. James Sterlich, filed suits Tuesday alleging sexual harassment by Harry Monterey, former chief deputy to the governor and president of the National Beehive Corporation.

Both Hessi Christman and Karla Treble worked at the corporation with Monterey, but left their jobs because of the alleged sexual harassment, the suits said. Christman worked

At a meeting of foreign ministers from the 35-nation Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe, Shevardnadze caused a stir when he announced that the Soviets planned to withdraw 60 tactical missile

clined to give specifics about where and how the cuts would be made or what percentage of the Soviet nuclear arsenal would be with on

Arms continued on page 15A

Doctor defends 'suicide device' after it's used by Alzheimer's patient

From News Services

A doctor in a suburb of Detroit says he connected a woman suffering from Alzheimer's disease to a homemade suicide device Monday and watched as she pushed a button and died.

Dr. Jack Kevorkian said Tuesday that this was the first time he had used his invention, which he unveiled last fall in a series of newspaper interviews around the country.

He said that Janet Adkins, who lived in Portland, Ore., got in touch with him as a result of the publicity and that he first met her last weekend at a restaurant near his home in Holly, Mich. He said he explained the procedure to her at dinner and decided she was alert enough

Suicide continued on page 11A

Almanac

Wednesday, June 6, 1990
157th day; 208 to go this year
Sunrise: 5:28. Sunset: 8:55

Today's weather/

Sunny weather with a high in the upper 70s is forecast for the Twin Cities metropolitan area today

By Steve Eikos
Printware

A skill often over-looked by job seekers and employers is telephone expertise.

when interviewing sales people and telemarketing representatives employers will find it difficult to determine a candidate's phone aptitude until an employee is hired.

The difference between a good and great telemarketing campaign can come down to hiring those people who have the ability to quickly establish a rapport with prospects in order to gain their confidence. This leads to professional, business relationships that generate the as secretary to the governor from 1982 until 1987 while Monterey was there and as executive director of Sterlich's Open Appointments Commission for several months in 1987.

Phone continued on 16A

Page 1B.

Christman and Treble allege a continual pattern of harassment by Monterey, including unwanted physical contact, sexual comments, flirting and requests for dates. They also allege he was verbally abusive. Christman alleges harassment by Monterey both at the corporation and while she was the

Suit continued on page 12A

Woman of two cultures T. Jo dies, but her spirit lives on

By Jim Parsons
Staff Writer

Amos owen knew last week that it was time, but there was one more thing to be done: spend his 44th wedding anniversary Sunday with his wife, lone.

"It was a lovely day for all of us," said daughter Linda Owen. "Dad was alert and all the children and grandchildren and adopted children were here. About midnight, Dad slipped into a coma. The nurse said he could still hear us, so mother and I talked to him. Sometimes he raised his eyebrow or moved his finger to let us know he was listening. Then, about dinnertime Monday evening, he left us. It was just like he wanted it."

Owen, who probably was the most respected Indian spiritual leader in the state, already had taken care of the important things: each of his five sons had been asked to continue the traditions of their father.

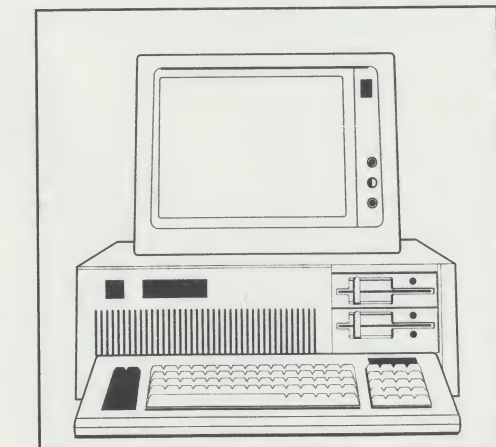

Raymond will keep the ancient Indian rituals alive and will fully assume the role of spiritual leader to those who need and want help.

Arthur will continue the message of reconciliation between the races that is at the "It was a lovely day for all of us," said daughter Linda Owen. "Dad was alert and all the children and grandchildren and adopted children were here. About midnight, Dad slipped into a coma. The nurse said he could still hear us, so mother and I talked to him. Sometimes he raised his eyebrow or moved his finger to let us know he was listening. Then, about dinnertime Monday evening, he left us. It was just like he wanted it."

Owen, who probably was the most respected Indian spiritual leader in the state, already had taken care of the important things: each of his five sons had been asked to continue the traditions of their father.

Owen continued on page 13A

Movies	10E	Obituaries	6B
Comics	6,7E	TV, Radio	8E

Complete Index 2A

Classifieds	673-7000
Circulation	673-4343

Copyright 1990 Star Tribune
Volume IX/Number 63 7sections